Continuation of 10. Other: The proposed amendments will be entered, but they do not place the application in condition for allowance. It is the view of the examiner that the prior art discloses that the same basic method, the administration of a 5% lidocaine patch, provides analgesic relief for both neuropathic and non-neuropathic pain. The examiner cannot take such a narrow view of the prior art when making an art rejection, particularly as it relates to the applicant's interpretation of the disclosure of Rolf. The art rejections of record are maintained..
